

The Legend's DOG HOUSE
from one sheet of plywood with overhanging roof

Supplies:

- | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ One sheet of exterior plywood-1/2 inch ▪ 4-2x2s-8' ▪ 2 inch exterior screws or galvanized nails ▪ Construction adhesive |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Instructions:

- | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Cut plywood as shown below. ▪ Cut 4-2x2-31" ▪ Cut 4-2x2-24" ▪ Cut 4-2x2-20" ▪ Cut out door from front piece, offset the opening. ▪ Screw/nail the 31" & 24" 2x2s to edges of sides. ▪ Screw/nail the 20" 2x2s to top & bottom of front & back. ▪ Screw/nail front to sides. (Use construction adhesive prior to attaching). ▪ Screw/nail back to sides. ▪ Attach roof, which should overhang by 3-3 1/2". ▪ Attach bottom (which is actually smaller). ▪ Optional: If your dogs are on chains, attach 2x2s around door opening. |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Note: Place your new dog house on a wood pallet or short legs.

